LOCAL NEWS.

RHODE ISLAND MONEY.—A number of the traders of Worcester have issued a card for a meeting of persons interested in the subject to consider the propriety of making some common arrangement for receiving Rhode Island money in the course of business in that city.

We clip the above from the Boston Journal of the 13th, whether the meeting mentioned has taken place as yet, or whether any decided determination in regard to the reception of our money in Worcester has been made, we are as yet not apprised. That it should be taken not only in that city but in Boston and New York is too obvious, to us here, to need comment, and we are surprised that the Merchants of Providence and Newport can allow the matter to rest as it has done for the last few weeks.

That the banks of Rhode Island are as good as those of any other State, now suspended, is not questioned even by those in our neighboring cities who refuse to take our bills at par. As the matter now stands the Merchants of our cities are crippled in their business transactions, out of the State, as they are obliged to submit to the most unlawful and unwarranted share, by brokers and speculators who look for their miserable gains with sharkish lust. It appears to us that some method of raising the credit of our banks should be taken at almost any reasonable sacrifice, so that at least this system of rascality can be done away with in these hard times.

The following letter of Prof. Bachie respecting the decrease of the depth of water on George's Bank, will be of interest to our mariners.

LETTER TO THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

Communicating extracts from a report by Lieut. Com'g C. R. P. RODGERS, U. S. N., Assistant in the Coast Survey, in relation to the gradual decrease in the depth of water on George's Bank.

BANGOR, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1857.

Sir,—I have the honor to communicate to the Department the result of a development made by Lieut. Com'g C. R. P. Rodgers, U. S. N., Assistant in the Coast Survey, showing a gradual decrease in the depth of water on the shallowest part of George's Bank, off the Coast and eastward of Cape Cod Peninsula. The examination was made under favorable circumstances on the 10th of September, and the results are thus reported by Lieut. Com'g Rodgers.

"George's Bank seems to consist of narrow sand ridges (like those at the entrance of Nantucket Sound) lying parallel to each other in a direction generally north and south, though some incline to the eastward and westward. The tide reaches across them with great violence."

"We kept the steamer over the crests of these ridges, and aided by our experience of last year, probably found the most shallow spot where the soundings, reduced to mean low water, show a depth of only thirteen feet, or two feet less than the last found in the year 1837. The last water found, differed only some seconds, either in latitude or longitude, from that found by Captain Wilkes in his examination of the Shoal twenty years ago."

I would respectfully request authority to publish this communication as a notice to mariners.

Very respectfully, yours,

A. D. BACHIE,

Sup. U. S. Coast Survey.

Hon. HOWELL COLE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

POLITICAL ON DUTY.—It is rumored that the resignation of Mr. Sumner of his post as U. S. Senator is in town, and that Mr. Banks, after he has been inaugurated Governor of the Commonwealth, will reluctantly suffer himself to be persuaded, upon the earnest solicitations of his friends, to allow himself to be chosen to fill the vacancy.

The above is from the Herald. We have heard the same on dit, but it is absurd upon its very face. Mr. Sumner could not have known of the election of Mr. Banks at the last accounts and would not be likely, even if he believed such a result probable, to send his resignation without consulting his friends. Besides, Mr. Banks consented to run for Governor for a definite purpose which is yet to be fulfilled. Those who suppose he will relinquish that purpose and go into the graceful retirement of the Senate, do not know the man.—Bost. Jour.

In England, members of parliament have to take an oath that they are worth £300 clear annual estate before they can take their seats. And, then, if the honorable member happens to become a bankrupt, he is suspended from holding his seat or voting for a year. If at the end of that time the creditors have not been paid in full, or the proceedings in bankruptcy suspended, the act being certified to the Speaker by the Commissioner of Bankruptcy, his seat is declared vacant, and a new writ for election is issued to his constituency.

The weekly statement of the Providence banks, giving their condition on Monday last, as compared with last week's returns, shows a decrease of $7,316 75 in circulation; and an increase of $103,052 82 in deposits, $40,514 08 in debts to other banks, $72,512 80 in loans, $4,782 47 in specie, $23,222 93 in bills of other banks, $14,677 80 in deposits in other banks.

THE PRESS.—The Anglo-Saxon newspaper, which has been published in this city for nearly two years, as the organ of the English population, is now discontinued. The morning edition of the Daily Bee is to be discontinued for the present, with a view to economy in expenses in the present depressed condition of the times. The evening edition will be published at 12 and half past 2 o'clock.—Bost. Jour.

We are frequently indebted to Chas. L. Stanhope, Esq., the courteous clerk of the steamer Perry for favors, and although we are very desirous to reciprocate his many attentions, yet it is difficult for us to find an opportunity.

Capt. Woolsey is at present off duty, and we have heard it rumored that he intended leaving the Perry to take the command of a larger steamer, if this be true, we hope Mr. Stanhope will take his place. We are confident that this would meet the wishes of all our citizens, and the Daily News will hold up both hands in its favor.

We should all regret to lose Capt. Woolsey, but Mr. Stanhope has been with him so many years that he would be his fit successor.

Our readers will recollect that Rev. Henry Ward Beecher will lecture in Aquidneck Hall, on Wednesday evening next, at half-past six o'clock, the doors will be opened at half-past five. The hour has been changed to accommodate Mr. Beecher, as he is obliged to leave in the New York boat at half-past eight. We understand his subject will be "Manliness."

By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that a quantity of meat has been stolen from the SPRING MARKET on Pope street. Mr. Allan offers a liberal reward and we hope he will succeed in bringing the thieves to account. We fear an unusual amount of crime will be perpetrated this winter, and we can hardly see how it will be prevented if the poor of the community should really suffer from the effects of hard times. The only way is to have a police force large enough, so that the street lights are well lighted, and keep a sharp lookout generally.

We learn that Capt. Littlefield, in view of the impression as expressed, has concluded to replace immediately such of the remains as had been taken up in the Arnold Rural ground and to put the yard in better order than it has been for years. And that should the public after reflection in another season clearly indicate a desire for him to fulfill his guarantee to the City Council, he will be ready, so far as he now sees, to perfect it in every respect.

We observe that the Newport Gas Light Co., are making some repairs at their office on Thames street, which will add very much to its convenience. The office was before too small and did not possess the necessary arrangements for the transaction of their rapidly increasing business.

Our readers will observe with pleasure that the NEWPORT MUSICAL SOCIETY are to give a CHARITABLE CONCERT on Friday Evening next, on which occasion they will celebrate the anniversary of the Society.

WALKER SAILED ON A NEW FILLIBUSTERING EXPEDITION.—The news from Walker yesterday was that he had been arrested for violation of the neutrality laws. The report, to-day is, that he appeared in court, was admitted to bail, for his appearance on the 17th, and in the afternoon, without even the decent form of recess, he embarked with 300 men on a new expedition. The steamer Fashion, with a portion of his men and large supplies of arms and ammunition, was searched by the United States Marshal, or more properly inspected, to see that she was in good condition, and was then allowed to proceed. Such is the upshot of the President's talk about enforcing the neutrality law. The next thing in the regular course is to send out a vessel of war for the convenience of Walker when he is ready to run away again. The dispatch says:

New Orleans, Nov. 11.—Walker is off. He appeared in the District Court this morning, and gave bail to appear on the 17th. This afternoon, himself, staff, and over 300 men, embarked on board the Mobile mail boat. The steamer Fashion, Capt. Coughlin, with a portion of his men, and a large quantity of arms and ammunition and provisions, got off at 2 o'clock this morning. She cleared for Mobile, and will intercept the mail boat outside, when the whole party will embark on the Fashion for Nicaragua. Capt. Fayson remains here. Gen. Hemmingsen is expected this week.—The United States steamer Fulton is in the Mississippi river, untroubled.

"Outwitted." Nothing but the cowardice of the government could have enabled the expedition to sail.—Prot. Jour.

We apprehend that for once our ultra Democratic Aldermen have been caught napping. After hoisterously denouncing the Street Commissioner, Mr. D. D. Conover, and declaring they would have nothing to do with him, they last night received a long official communication from him, and ordered it to be printed. This is an unexpected step in advance. Had they immediately recognized him, and permitted the ordinary business of the Department to go on, there would at this day have been thousands of laboring men at work for the city, and many much desired improvements would have been completed. But instead of this, they followed the Mayor, and tied up the Department, to the damage of the city, and still more to the laboring classes.—A. Y. Tribune.

DEATH OF AN OLD PRINTER.—The Ontario Repository announces the death, at Brattleboro, Vt., on Monday last week, of James D. Demis, at the age of 74 years. He was born in Worcester county, Mass., and commenced his apprenticeship as a printer, in Boston and completed it in this city, in the office of Solomon Southwick. Mr. Demis went to Canadaigua in January, 1804; and in the course of that year he connected himself with Mr. John K. Gould, in the publication of what was then called the Repository and Advertiser. He not only purchased the interest of his partner in the establishment, and changed its name to that which it now bears.

Correspondence of the Daily News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 1857.

Dear Editor,—My eye has just fallen upon the ludicrous picture in Harper's Weekly of November 17th, of the fair sex, represented as a flock of birds of prey alighting upon the prostrate dry goods merchants of our city. And, although the fun of this thing, is getting to be an old story. I cannot but remark upon it, for the benefit of those, if there are any, among the fair ones and dear ones of your town, who have been forced to regret their own sad deprivation of such an opportunity of enriching a wardrobe without advancement of cost; and thus being enabled during these forth-coming winter months to "come out" at those "vestures" to which they are invited by the Daily News, (and whither their papa's and husbands will do well to take them) in an attire more rich, as well as more becoming, than a truly wise use of the means at their disposal have hitherto enabled them to do. For in the first place, the "goods" are not so very cheap. I know a little something about the value of dry goods (as every person of common sense must, who has seen the world and has lived since the days of "sheep-skins and goat-skins") though I have never been in the trade; and I made up my mind in the commencement of the fair, and have seen no reason to change it, that many of the goods were not offered as low as "cost," though it was so pretended, and that there was nothing put at less than "cost" that was worth buying,—yet I have seen a great many goods sold at this time, and greedily taken too, which a few months past would have attracted no attention, and which the salesmen would have treated with contempt, as much as to say, "Oh yes!—I can sell it to you if you want it, it is here to sell of course,—and will undoubtedly be sold to some one who intends to buy twice the quantity of articles, that the small amount in their purses can possibly command of really valuable or useful goods; but I would rather give you the advantage of my better judgment, and give you for your money that which will bear the test of use."

But, now, such is the distress for money, and so anxious are all interested to retain their places, and such is the hurry and confusion, consequent upon this state of things, that to sell, to take in money, to meet notes, to get through the panic at ever so hard a squeeze is the true wisdom of the time. So that the chances for those who are not rare judges of dry goods; or who have come without much forethought and calculation; or are not in themselves, at all times very cool and self collected; or are in a hurry, are to throw away one half of their money, and for the other half not get what they really want.

I would they rather have preferred to supply my pretty daughters were I possessed of such "treasures" with money and a suitable escort for a pleasure trip, to enjoy some of the magnificent mountain scenery in the month of October; or even to see the fine old bachelor president or any other notables, or notabilities (to be noted down in their richly bound amber-tinted and rose-scented common-place books in a neat crumpled hand that looks as if it was pinning and dying for the want of a necessity for getting its own living even if by writing trashier articles like this for the Newport Daily News;) than to see them in such company as that which has composed the largest part of the throng at the Dry Goods Stores for the last month.

But to the pretty daughters of your quiet town who occasionally take a trip here to relieve the monotony of the winter season at home. I would say—order an early breakfast, and thus secure a long morning which you can devote to that which is worthy of your higher aims. Go to the old Dusseldorf—the sum required for your admittance fee, would not purchase surely a pair of gloves, as you would dignify draw over your taper fingers. When you get there, do not be in a hurry—what you see and learn there are treasures laid up for many a weary day. Go to the old 'Art Union-rooms'; you will find there some good pictures of the French school—some few by Rose Bonheur, and also a life size portrait of the fair Artist who has now acquired a world-wide renown in her own department. Then you must not fail to see her grand triumph of the 'horse fair' at Williams & Stevens's where you will also find a sketch of her life, and see the illustration of a great truth—that true genius, is not all inspiration, but that labor and patience, and withal much self-denial, is often required to attain to anything like excellence in art or science.

Go also to the British Gallery which is in the new rooms of the Academy of Design. If you are young, and feel that you are unappreciative, read everything that comes in your way on the subject of Art—of painting, statuary and design, and some of you may learn for the first time, that you have an enthusiastic love of the beautiful and true which had well nigh been obliterated and crushed out of you, by being warped and bent down to the foolish flippancy of dress and fashion.

The passion for variety and novelty in dress, when carried to excess, grows out of a vacant mind, a busy imaginative, but unenlightened fancy—an intellectual woman, in good society will usually dress in the fashion, while her whole appearance indicates that she does so from motives of propriety, and not from personal vanity.

THE REGULATION OF PRICES.—The agents of the cotton planters in New Orleans have attempted to make an agreement to keep up the price of cotton, without reference to the demand or supply, or the condition of the markets for manufacture and consumption. Luckily for themselves and those whom they represent, they did not succeed. If they had made such an arrangement, and had acted upon it, the effect would have been to pile up a stock of cotton to fall upon a languid market, and cause a further decline.

The customers of one of the markets in Philadelphia are trying a similar combination to put down the price of provisions, by agreeing not to purchase butter above a certain price. This is more feasible than the other; for the purchasers have the advantage of the sellers, except in articles of prime necessity, and those are few. Butter is classed among them; but it is because we have made necessary what was originally a luxury. We eat more butter than is good for the health, and if the demand was lessened, the price would fall, and probably the quality would improve; for when the article is in so great request, and at such high price, almost every thing that can be called butter is forced upon the market, and readily taken.—Prov. Jour.

MILD REBUKE.—The Journal of Commerce which supports Mayor Wood, says—

"We are inclined to think that a part of the hue and cry which has been raised about these prospective disturbances, is political in its object and aims. Politics should not be mingled with questions of this nature."

Certainly not, never; it is very naughty to frighten the city into re-electing the Mayor by disturbing the public peace. Now be a good Mayor Wood, and don't do so any more.—Prov. Journal.

HEALTHY HEAD.

JAMES PYLE.

DIETETIC SALE AT S

IS among the most important improvements of the present day. Every family through out this land should be acquainted with its intrinsic value, and thereby escape the many evils arising from the use of common Salutaris—the caustic impurities of which are acknowledged destructive to health, by physicians generally. Common salutaris has the elements of caustic alkali, and readily acts on the coating of the stomach, thus deranging the digestive organs and paving the way of Dyspepsia and diseases of every kind. Child Drums are the greatest sufferers and frequently die from infantile diseases, which in former years, were successfully treated, even without medical aid. But here is an article to be relied on.

James Pyle's Dietetic Salutaris, the result of many experiments, is entirely different from everything heretofore in use. The perfection reached in purifying it, make it as harmless to the stomach as flour itself while in point of purity it surpasses the best baking soda, and will make bread, biscuit, cake, &c., beautifully light, nutritious, and suitable for the most dyspeptic stomach. Every body that tries it will use no other.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—Our great success has brought out a multitude of poisonous imitations. The genuine is packed in whole, half, and quarter packages, with the name of James Pyle on each. Manufactured by J. Pyle, 314 Washington st., New York.

For sale at all the groceries in Newport, Providence and throughout the State.

ALPINE HAIR BALM.

Restoring Gray Hair to its original Color. It is warranted to cure Baldness, Scurf, Dandruff, itching and all diseases of the scalp. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the root of the hair, which passes through the hair and gives a natural color without the use of Hairs Dye. It keeps the hair from falling off.

Mr. Mason, Sir:—I have found a Hair Restorative in your Alpine Balm, which has not merely changed the gray locks for their original, but has given them a glossy hue, which before they never had.

JEREMIAH S. ROSS, 123 Wickenden street, Providence, May 20, 1857.

Providence, July 30, 1857. C. A. P. Mason, Dear Sir:—I am now using the Alpine Hair Balm, which I had of you, with most happy results. On the 20th of June last, my hair (which had been gray for more than six years) was fast falling off, but on the third application of the Balm it ceased falling, and is now firmly rooted, and very nearly its original color. By the use of one bottle, I confidently expect a complete, permanent, luxuriant and original head of hair. If every gray haired skeptic would try it, they would soon become "living epistles, known and read of all men," as having used the Alpine Hair Balm. Yours, &c.

JOHN F. TRESCOTT, 227 Westminster street, Providence.

TESTIMONY OF A LADY OVER 50

Mr. Mason, Sir:—I write to inform you how pleased I am with your Alpine Hair Balm. My hair has been gray for a number of years, and I have been obliged to wear a front piece and cap; but have always found a difficulty when having a bonnet on to keep the front piece from working back and showing the white hair. Finally I concluded I would try your Alpine Hair Balm; I used one bottle only and my hair has come back to its natural color, which was a great blessing. My hair is now perfectly free from dandruff and is soft and glossy.

Very respectfully, SARAH LYON. Providence, May 29, 1857.

READ! READ! READ!—"Ye afflicted read!" the following Certificate of cure of over 20 years' standing:

H. T. HENNINGSEN—Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with an affection of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your genuine preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects and feel much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine. I am truly yours, H. T. HENNINGSEN.

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 28, 1857.

Should any doubt Mr. Henningesen's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen:

Hon. Wm. Bigler, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.

Hon. Thos. B. Florence, Philadelphia.

Hon. J. C. Knox, Judge, Tingo Co., Pa.

Hon. J. S. Blair, Judge, Philadelphia.

Hon. D. R. Porter, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.

USE THE AMERICAN VEGETABLE HAIR CURLING COMPOUND.

For Curling and Beautifying the Hair and Removing the Whiskers.

All who wish to improve the health and growth of the Hair and Whiskers, should not be without this compound. It has been fully tested to be the best article now in use. It gives a black and glossy appearance, and after the first application, will curl the hair in beautiful ringlets.

For gentlemen's Whiskers, nothing can be better for curling and making them thick and glossy. As this article is purely vegetable, it will not injure the hair, but will remove the unsightly dandruff and looseness of the hair, which, recedes its loss, and will increase its growth and give it a healthy and luxuriant brilliancy.

Many are the testimonials in its favor, and it must be tried to be appreciated. Those wishing a beautiful head of hair, can have it by using the Curling Compound which is put up in a nice box, richly labeled on four sides.

Price 25c. For the Skin and Complexion, use Dr. Le BARRON'S Lily Cream. This article is composed of the most soothing substances known in the Vegetable Kingdom, and as it contains no poisonous or injurious materials, it can be used at all times and with entire safety, even upon the most delicate skin. Price only 25 cents and 50c. per bottle.

See that you get the Lily Cream. For sale by J. J. LEWIS, Providence, R. I., Agent for the United States and the Canadas.
